

DIABETES AND METABOLISM SEMINAR SERIES

Workshop on Diabetes Complications

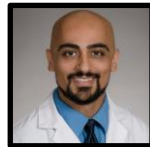

Thursday, December 5, 2019

UW South Lake Union Campus
Room F106, 750 Republican Street, Seattle, WA 98109

Please RSVP: <https://catalyst.uw.edu/webq/survey/arrants1/381076>

8:30 AM Opening remarks

8:40 AM

Steven Saraf, MD, Assistant Professor of Ophthalmology,
University of Washington
The evolving Approach to Diabetic Retinopathy

9:15 AM

Shreeram Akilesh, MD, PhD, Assistant Professor of Pathology,
University of Washington
Functional Genomic Approaches to Identify Novel Targets for Diabetic Nephropathy

9:50 AM

Behzad Najafian, MD, Associate Professor of Pathology,
University of Washington
Structural-functional Relationships in Diabetic Nephropathy

10:25 AM Coffee break

10:45 AM

Tomas Vaisar, PhD, Associate Professor of Medicine, Division of Metabolism, Endocrinology and Nutrition, University of Washington
HDL Cholesterol Efflux Capacity is Associated with Prolonged QT in People with CVD

11:20 AM

Nathan Stitzel, MD, PhD, Associate Professor of Medicine and Genetics, Cardiovascular Division, Washington University School of Medicine in St. Louis,
Human Genetic Insights into Lipoproteins and Risk of Cardiometabolic Disease

12:00 PM Lunch